

Patient Responsibility & Insurance Information

McKenzie participates with many insurance companies; however it is the patients' obligation to verify that McKenzie participates with their carrier before services are rendered. It is the patients' responsibility to know and understand the terms and requirements of their insurance plan including financial obligations for paying copays, deductibles and co-insurances; pre-authorization certification; and specific laboratory requirements. Co-pays, deductibles, and co-insurances are due at the time of service.

Payment Arrangements Through McKenzie

The hospital offers payment arrangements payable in monthly installments. For more information contact the McKenzie Patient Accounting Department at 810-648-6199.

Un-insured Discount

Patients who apply and are approved for financial assistance may receive a discount for services rendered.
